Daedalus Winery

The first tasting of 2010 comes from Dundee, OR. Sara Shaw will be here from the Winery on Sat, Jan 9th, 3p-6p for the feature presentation. They typify exactly the kinds of wines I strive to have represented in my store.

Daedalus Cellars (DAY-de-lus) is a small, family-owned and operated winery located in Oregon's Willamette Valley. They source from some of the state's best vineyards and handle the fruit minimally and carefully to create balanced wines with complex fruit and elegant structure.

New Italians

These are wines newly imported into Seattle, and I am proud to have the first Public tasting of them CARLIN de PAOLO is a family-run wine producer in its fourth generation. A strong passion for the land, grape-growing and wine production has been passed down from father to son up to the present. While still respecting ancient traditions they avail themselves of modern technology so as to obtain the best quality possible. Their BAROLO will be included in the Free Tasting.

A&B Imports

A&B Imports presents: Best Places Varietals from around the world. What variety of grapes do you associate with different parts of the wine-producing globe? Malbec from Argentina, Pinot Noir from Chile, Old Vine Garnacha from Spain, even a great White from Portugal and all under $10! Get to know these varietals as expressed from some of the best places for that type of wine.
